2018 Elie Roth Scholarship Guidelines

The International Dyslexia Association – Ontario Branch (ONBIDA) is pleased to announce two scholarships to cover registration fees for the annual ONBIDA conference on November 3rd, 2018. ONBIDA's Elie Roth Scholarship is aimed at providing funding for professionals in education or related fields to enhance their understanding of dyslexia and intervention strategies.

Scholarship applications will be adjudicated by the Conference Scholarship Adjudication Committee and will be awarded based on the information in your personal statement.

The statement, limited to 250 words, must answer the following questions:

- 1) What is your interest in dyslexia and related learning disabilities?
- 2) How do you hope this conference will contribute to your personal and/or professional development?
- 3) How do you plan to share and/or apply the information with your colleagues and/or family?
- 4) Why do you require financial support?
- 5) What will be your involvement with ONBIDA?*

In an effort to widen our reach, ONBIDA asks that all scholarship recipients agree to 'get involved' in some way, such as sharing their experiences through writing a blog submission, giving a workshop at their school and inviting ONBIDA to document the experience, or volunteering with ONBIDA at a future event. Please include your idea about how you would get involved in your statement.*

Scholarship deadline is 12:00 NOON on September 28th, 2018. Recipients will be notified by October 3rd, before the early bird registration deadline on October 7th, 2018. All forms and personal statements should be emailed to info@idaontario.com or mailed to the address at the bottom of this document. All applications must be received before the deadline so please keep this in mind if you are using Canada Post. Please note that incomplete or illegible applications will not be considered.
